VICTORY TO THE DUNNES STRIKERS!

Yet again Dunnes workers have had to take action to make Margaret Heffernan and the Dunnes management treat them with respect. After last years three week long strike, the strikers got some concessions from Dunnes, but every promise has been broken. There is little doubt that the workers have the strength to bring Dunnes Stores to their knees. Dunnes Stores, the largest private employer in Ireland, represents all that is wrong in Irish society. They represent the bosses' greed and the driving down of workers' pay and conditions. But they know that they have a fight on their hands. One that they are scared that they could lose.

A victory for the strikers will not only represent a great victory against Dunnes Stores, but will also inspire workers around the country to fight to win better wages and conditions in their own workplaces. It will boost the morale of workers already striking in the Royal Dublin Hotel, of others who intend to go out in the Gresham. It will tell the Margaret Heffernans and the Larry Goodmans that we won't stand for any more low paid jobs. This is why we should organise collections and fundraisers immediately. A victory for the strike is a victory for every worker in this country.
